

Curriculum Vitae - George Mathieson

Field of Expertise -Pensions and Divorce

- i. I am a director and the founder of Mathieson Consulting Limited. The company was established to provide highly specialised services to matrimonial lawyers, barristers, and others in the field of Pensions and Divorce.
- ii. I am AFPC G60 qualified, (the Pensions Module of the Advanced Financial Planning Certificate), which is considered to be of a standard equivalent to a degree.
- iii. I have worked in the financial services sector for over 20 years, both in banking, investment advice and pensions. I have a wide experience of managing the investments which comprise the pension assets about which I comment.
- iv. Over the past 5 years I have been asked to consider pensions issues in over 500 Ancillary Relief proceedings. I undertake a forensic analysis of benefit disclosure, and advise both instructing solicitor and Counsel upon the available options, and ramifications for their clients.
- v. I was involved in the Martin-Dye case, advising Counsel for Mr Martin-Dye in the Court of Appeal.
- vi. I have run many lectures for Resolution, and in house training courses for solicitors on the subject of pensions and divorce, having previously been authorised by the Law Society to provide CPD accredited courses for Solicitors. I have recently been engaged by Central Law Training, to run a series of courses around the UK entitled "Pensions and Divorce – The expert's view".
- vii. I have been engaged to write a series of articles for publication in Family Law Journal, on current issues regarding pensions and Divorce.

April 2009

(Website www.mathiesonconsulting.co.uk currently under construction contains some further details)